

SAN MATEO COUNTY EXPOSITION AND FAIR ASSOCIATION

BYLAWS

Amended as of February 26, 2020

ARTICLE I CORPORATE ACTIVITIES

1. This corporation, known as the San Mateo County Exposition and Fair Association (hereinafter referred to as Association), whose principal place of business is in the City of San Mateo, is a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State of California. Its activities shall be non-partisan, non-sectarian and non-political.

ARTICLE II BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The corporate powers, business and affairs of the corporation shall be exercised, conducted and controlled by a Board of Directors consisting of eleven (11) regular members with at least one (1) member from the agriculture community. A quorum of the regular directors shall be six (6) directors.

2. The Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo has the sole right to appoint Association Directors. Vacancies on the Board of Directors will be filled by the Board of Supervisors of the County within sixty (60) days of the date a vacancy occurs whether by expiration of a term or otherwise.

3. Directors shall be residents of the County of San Mateo at the time of their appointments and shall remain residents of the County during their tenure as a Director of the Association.

ARTICLE III DIRECTOR-EMERITUS

~~1. Director(s) may qualify for Emeritus status upon the completion of a minimum of two (2) full three (3) year terms as an active member of the Board of Directors. If, at the end of one (1) term, a Director(s) is not reappointed, or should leave the active Board for other reasons, Emeritus status may be accorded by a vote of the Board of Directors.~~

~~2. Director Emeritus shall have the privileges as defined in the Association Board of Directors' policies.~~

ARTICLE IV
TERM OF OFFICE

- 1. The terms of office for Directors shall begin October 1st and extend for a period of three (3) years, unless sooner terminated or resignation of a Director, whereupon, a replacement will be appointed to fill the unexpired term by the County Board of Supervisors.
- 2. Directors shall be limited to four full terms of service. Directors' terms shall be staggered so that a proportionate number of terms of service shall terminate each year.
- 3. Upon completion of each three (3) year term or an unexpired term, the County Board of Supervisors' subcommittee will advertise that a vacancy exists on the Board of Directors and will seek applicants for that vacancy. The Board of Directors, through its own committee, may recommend either retention or non-retention of the incumbent for consideration by the Supervisors' Subcommittee in filling the vacancy.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

- 1. Regular Board meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 4:00 P.M. in the Board chambers unless canceled or rescheduled by the Board.
- 2. All regular, special and emergency meetings shall be noticed and held in accordance with the provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act.
- 3. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall take place on the fourth Wednesday in September of each year.
- 4. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President, or by the written request of three (3) Directors.
- 5. Emergency meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President, or in his/her absence by the Vice-President, in his/her absence by the Corporate Secretary-Treasurer.
- 6. Each Director shall have one (1) vote.
- 7. A Director may participate in a Board meeting by teleconference provided participation is in compliance with all applicable requirements under the Brown Act, including California Government Code Section 54953:
  - a. A quorum of the Board must participate in the meeting from locations within the District's boundaries;
  - b. The posted agenda must identify the location from which a teleconferencing Director will be calling in from;
  - c. In addition to all other posting requirements, the agenda must be posted at the teleconference location;
  - d. The teleconference location must be open and accessible to the public, including to those with disabilities.

e. If members of the public are at the teleconference location, they must be able to hear the proceedings and they must be given the right to comment as if they were at the Board meeting location.

f. All votes taken during a meeting in which one or more Board members are teleconferencing must be by roll call vote, and the vote must be publicly recorded.

ARTICLE VI DUTIES OF THE DIRECTORS

1. Directors have a commitment to the appointing authority, the other Directors on the Board, and paid and volunteer staff of the Association, and both the public who participate in, or attend the Association events.

2. The Board of Directors is responsible for establishing policy for implementation by Management that provides equitable treatment for all employees and Association attendees.

3. The Board of Directors shall have power to incur indebtedness, the terms and amount of which shall be entered in the Minutes of the Board, and any note or obligations, shall be signed by the President and the Corporate Secretary-Treasurer.

4. Directors are expected to attend the regular monthly meetings and participate in committees as required. Each Director is expected to contribute his or her time and specific abilities as may be required for the benefit of the Fair.

5. Board members that miss 40% of Board and committee meetings in a six (6) month period shall be subject to reconsideration by the County Board of Supervisors.

Personal commitments or business commitments that prevent a Director's attendance at Board Meetings will not qualify as excused absences, unless the prior approval of the President has been granted.

6. Just as employees have only one supervisor, the General Manager shall be accountable to only one Director, usually the President, acting on behalf of the entire Board of Directors.

7. No Director or Officer of the Corporation shall receive remuneration for duties performed as such. All Officers and Directors of the Corporation shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred while on official business of the Corporation.

8. The Board of Directors may delegate to the Executive Committee the right to act in the name of the Board of Directors in transactions occurring between Board meetings, except the power to amend or repeal the Bylaws.

The Executive Committee shall be subject at all times to the direction and control of the Board of Directors, and their actions shall be ratified and confirmed at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors following any action taken by the said committee.

9. If the office of President, Vice-President, or Corporate Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant, the Board of Directors shall elect a successor, who shall hold office for the unexpired term until his or her successor is duly elected.

10. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the Corporation. This inspection by a Director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

ARTICLE VII OFFICERS

1. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, and Corporate Secretary-Treasurer, who shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the annual meeting. These officers shall hold office for one (1) year or until their successors are duly elected. The one (1) year term will begin on October 1 and continue through September 30. None of the three (3) officers shall serve more than two (2) consecutive years in the same office. The three (3) Officers shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors along with the Immediate Past President of the Corporation.

2. President: The President shall preside at all meetings of the Corporation and the Board of Directors.
